Athletic Entertainment

given for the Benefit of Athletics

...at...

University of Cincinnati

McMicken Hall,
Thursday, June 9th, 1898.

Committee on Entertainment.

Mr. W. G. Eberhardt,

Mr. Chas. Adler, Mr. M. R. Ebersole.
This is the Start.

Things begin to happen at eight o'clock. Souvenir hammers furnished to knockers before and after the show.

By order of

JOE. FREY, Head Knocker.

This show is cheap at the price, no rain checks given. Watches and other valuables may be left at the box office, as the management does not vouch for the honesty of its employees. An ambulance and corps of physicians will be in attendance throughout the performance. If the ushers are all "busy" take any old seat.

They're Off.

Opening Overture—"Echo of '97," - - - - - - - Company
End Man, - - - - - - - - - - - Morry Ebersole
"Get Your Money's Worth," - - - - - - - Ragged Eberhardt
End Man, - - - - - - - - - - - Andy Hickenlooper
Selection, - - - - - - - - - - - - Tony Williams
End Man, - - - - - - - - - - - Ned Stewart
"Take Your Clothes and Go," - - - - - - - Art Peck
End Man, - - - - - - - - - - - Andy Hickenlooper
"I Don't Like No Cheap Man," - - - - - - - Morry Ebersole
End Man, - - - - - - - - - - - Ned Stewart

Minstrel first part will conclude with the Patriotic Tableau, "The Stars and Stripes Forever," introducing John Philip Snoozer and his celebrated String Bean Band, direct from the "Alhambra" Covington, after a run of 500 nights.
This is the Finish.

The Little Rebel.

Mr. Stephen Poppincourt, - - - - - Mr. William Sampson
Arthur Ormeston, - - - - - - - - Mr. Fred. Hinkle
Mrs. Wingrove, - - - - - - - - Miss Elizabeth Middleton
Laura, - - - - - - - - - - Miss Flora Coan
Kitty Vinks, - - - - - - - - - Miss Anna Coan

All good people noticed in the audience will find their names in to-morrow’s Enquirer.

Free dance after the show. Those participating will please keep in step with the music. No three steps allowed.

Tallewanda Water, one cent per glass, in basement.

Strangers are requested to keep off of our front lawn.

Next week’s attractions: Hydes Comedians, with their famous After-Piece, “How to Graduate,” or “The Mystery of the Sheep-skin.”

Ladies will please remove their hats, by order of Faculty.
Mr. Chas. Adler, Interlocutor.

End Men:

Tambos: Morry Ebersole, Art Peck, Ragged Eberhardt.

Chorus:

Tenors: Ingles, Smith, Peck, Crocker, Wilsons, Williams.

Fivers: Miller, Finley, Jackson, Hickenlooper, Ebersole, Eberhardt.

Piano furnished by Albert Krell & Co.
Patronize our Advertisers.

"Snoozer's Band."

Smith—First Horn. Williams—Basso Horn
Peck—Second Horn. Miller—Basso Profando.

Gift of Miss Amelia Dunham
August 3, 1960