DCS² Data & Computational Science Series 2020

Data Management BINGO

The DCS2 Series brings to the University of Cincinnati research community a variety of innovative workshops and distinguished speakers on advanced research data topics including high performance computing, cloud computing, data visualization, research story-mapping, spatial analysis, artificial intelligence and machine learning.

https://libraries.uc.edu/research-teaching-support/research-data-services/data-computational-science-series.html

March 4, 2020
12:30 to 2:30

240H Braunstein - Visualization Laboratory @ GMP Library
Data Management Bingo

Workshop description

Join UC Libraries, IT@UC, and other researchers in a fun game of Data Management Bingo. This interactive workshop will use the game of Bingo to prompt a discussion of personal and research data management best practices. Come learn what other colleagues are doing to keep their personal data secure and to protect and reuse their research data. Everyone will be a winner.

The workshop is free and open to all. Lunch will be provided for registered attendees. There will be fun prizes for round winners. This event is funded by the Provost Funded Data & Computational Science Series.

To register vist - https://webapps2.uc.edu/ce/FacDev/Workshops/Details/15424

Contact Amy Koshoffer (Amy.Koshoffer@UC.Edu or 513-556-1310) with questions

The DCS² series is presented by UC Libraries and UCit Research & Development and is supported by an Universal Provider award from UC's Office of the Provost for Faculty Development.

University of
CINCINNATI